The Narangi Aanchalik Mahavidyalaya Women Study and Research Center in association with IQAC successfully organised 7th Sangeeta Borthakur memorial speech competition on 20th February, 2025 at the digital class room. The event aims to provide a platform for students to express their view on the topic "Role of women in developing society".

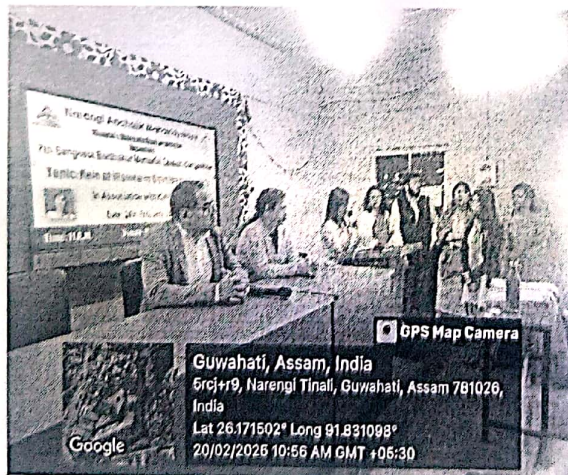

The competition commences at 11am with an introductory speech by the assistant convener Mrs. Jojana Gandha Pathak. This was followed by the inauguration of the event by our Principal, Dr. Lukendra Kakati, who paid tribute to the late Sangeeta Borthakur and delivered an inspiring address encouraging students.

A total of 23 students participate in the competition, each presenting insightful perspective on the role of women in various spheres.

The panel of judges comprised Dr. Saroj Kakati (HOD Assamese) and Dr. Jayanta Barooah (HOD Economics) who evaluates the participants.

The winners of the competition was first, Hafiza Khatun (4th semester, department of political science), second, Easter Varte (4th semester department of English), and third Bhanita Das (6th semester department of economics).

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. Sudha Kumari, who expressed gratitude to principal sir, organizing team, judges participants and attendees for making the event a success.
